Introduction

This document contains information about AIM Qualifications and Assessment Group's fees and charges for the academic year 2025/26 effective as of 1 September 2025 and are correct at the time of publication.

Our charges include qualification/product approval, registration, external quality assurance and certification.

About us

As a leading Awarding Organisation (AO), AIM develops regulated vocational qualifications and has an extensive portfolio of almost 600 qualifications (entry level to level 6), across 85 subjects. As an Access Validating Agency (AVA) AIM is licensed by the Quality Assurance Agency (QAA) to develop and award nationally recognised Access to Higher Education Diplomas.

AIM also develops customised accreditation and quality assurance services. These services are ideal for organisations who don't require a full qualification, or for those looking for a quality kitemark for in-house training.

As a registered, specialist End-Point Assessment Organisation (EPAO), AIM delivers assessments for 35+ apprenticeship standards for the digital, sales, marketing & procurement, creative & design, and business & administration sectors, ensuring that apprentices can do the job for which they've been trained. Prices for end-point assessments (EPAs) vary with each standard as some assessment methods are more expensive than others.

For more information, see our EPA Pricing Policy.

AIM Quality Mark

The Quality Mark is designed for organisations and employers who are seeking a quality kitemark for their own training programmes that they have created. It does not assess individual learner achievements but instead provides a formal endorsement that AIM consider their programmes to be high quality that provide a meaningful learning experience. Programmes/courses are developed and written by the organisation to meet their particular training requirements and AIM provides certification to evidence successful participation and completion.

An annual flat fee of £750 will be chargeable to all organisations seeking a quality kitemark for their own training programmes.

Registration and Certification

You will be required to register each of your delegates with us when they start your course and confirm completion to claim certification at the end. A one time administration fee of £20 for dual-branded certificates will be charged to include the organisations' logo.

Registration for certification charges

- Per learner: £10
- Replacement certificate fee: £10
