eLearning Qualifications

Our eLearning qualifications provide flexible delivery options for centres and learners.

Designed for remote or blended learning, these qualifications support independent study while maintaining the same regulated standards and quality assurance as classroom-based delivery. eLearning is ideal for centres looking to widen access, increase flexibility or meet the needs of learners who require a more adaptable approach.

Apprenticeship Assessment

Apprenticeship assessment can feel high stakes for apprentices, employers and training providers. Choosing the right Assessment Organisation matters.

At AIM, we deliver a fair, transparent and supportive assessment experience. Our team works closely with providers and employers to ensure clear communication, straightforward processes and consistent decision-making.

We assess across a wide range of standards from Level 3 to Level 7. To date, we have assessed thousands of apprentices across multiple sectors and continue to expand our portfolio in response to employer demand.

Access to Higher Education

The Access to Higher Education (HE) Diploma prepares learners without traditional qualifications for study at university.

With over 40 years of experience, AIM develops, approves and monitors Access to HE courses across the UK. Licensed by the QAA to award Access to HE Diplomas, we are a recognised and trusted Access Validating Agency.

We currently offer 46 nationally recognised Diplomas delivered at 73 AIM Access to HE centres across the UK, covering a broad range of subjects and progression pathways into Higher Education.

The Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA) is the independent body that safeguards academic standards and quality in UK higher education.

Through a partnership with the Learning Curve Group, eight of our 46 re-validated Access to HE Diplomas can be delivered online, as part of a blended learning programme, through the highly innovative and leading-industry platform, eassessorpro.
